The following events have led to this notice:

You contacted a patient who was in your care for personal reasons. You utilized contact information you acquired from confidential patient documents.

Your probation shall be subject to the following terms and conditions.

- a. You shall successfully complete two (2) hours of continuing education in the area of ethics within 6 month of the effective date of this notice. Prior to attending a course, you shall submit the proposed course name and course syllabus. These hours shall be in addition to those required for renewal of your certification. You are responsible for all costs associated with this requirement.
- b. You shall successfully complete one (1) hour of continuing education in the area of the privacy requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act within 6 months of the effective date of this notice. Prior to attending a course, you shall submit the proposed course name and course syllabus. These hours shall be in addition to those required for renewal of your certification. You are responsible for all costs associated with this requirement.
- c. You shall submit quarterly reports to the bureau (filed no later than January 10, April 10, July 10, and October 10) which shall include the following information:
 - i. The time period covered by the report
 - ii. Verification that you have complied with the terms of probation as specified in this Notice.
- d. You shall make a personal appearance before the bureau upon request. You shall be given reasonable notice of the date, time, and place of appearance.

- e. You shall obey all federal, state, and local statutes and rules governing the provisions of emergency medical services.
- f. You shall notify any current or prospective employer, to include direct supervisors, service directors and medical directors, of the terms, conditions and restrictions imposed by this notice. Within fifteen days of this notice taking effect, or of undertaking new employment, your direct supervisor, service director and medical director shall report to the bureau, in writing, acknowledging that the employer and medical director have read this document and understands it.
- g. You shall notify any EMS training program you enroll in for courses leading to certification of the reasons for this probation. Within fifteen days of this notice taking effect, or entering an EMS training program, the training program director and medical director shall report to the bureau, in writing, acknowledging that the training program and medical director have read this document and understands it.
- h. You shall notify the bureau of any change in address within one week of said change.
- i. In the event you violate or fail to comply with any of the terms or provisions of your probation, the department may initiate appropriate action to revoke or suspend your certification or to impose other appropriate discipline.
- j. This Notice shall be part of the permanent record of the bureau and shall be considered by the bureau in determining the nature and severity of any disciplinary action to be imposed in the event of future violations.

You have the right to request a hearing concerning this notice of disciplinary action. A request for a hearing must be submitted in writing to the Department by certified mail, return receipt requested, within twenty (20) days of receipt of this Notice of Proposed Action. The written request must be submitted to the Iowa Department of Public Health, Bureau of Emergency and Trauma Services, Lucas State Office Building, 321 East 12th Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50319. If the request is made within the twenty (20) day time limit, the proposed action is suspended pending the outcome of the hearing. Prior to, or at the hearing, the Department may rescind the notice upon satisfaction that the reason for the action has been or will be removed.

If no request for a hearing is received within the twenty (20) day time period, the disciplinary action proposed herein shall become effective and shall be final agency action.
