How can I find out the status of my Child Care Assistance?

Questions about family status eligibility should be directed to the Child Care Assistance Eligibility Unit by calling 1-866-448-4605 or emailing ccaapps@dhs.state.ia.us

I received my Child Care Assistance approval Notice of Decision. Can you explain what do the “units” mean?

The number of units each child is approved to use can be found on the approval Notice of Decision. One unit of service is a half day, which is defined as up to five hours of service during a 24-hour period. Child care received over the approved units may result in additional fees charged to the family by the child care provider.

How do I know if I have to pay a co-pay to my child care provider?

The co-payment amount is listed under “Fees” on your approval Notice of Decision. Families are expected to pay the co-pay directly to their child care provider for the care they use.

How can I report changes to my Child Care Assistance benefits?

Report changes in providers, work hours, class schedule, income, address, or household composition to the CCA Eligibility Unit by calling 1-866-448-4605 or emailing ccaapps@dhs.state.ia.us within 10 days of the change.

Can I submit my Child Care Assistance Review form online?

You may scan and email a completed copy of your Child Care Assistance Review form to ccaapps@dhs.state.ia.us. You may also go online to the Child Care Client Portal and apply within 45 days prior to your assistance ending.

How do I find out why my Child Care Assistance benefits were denied or cancelled?

Families will receive a Notice of Decision in the mail that explains the reason for the denial/cancellation of benefits. If you have additional questions about the Notice of Decision you received, call 1-866-448-4605 or email ccaapps@dhs.state.ia.us
