Definitions

Please provide the definition of a child for the services provided in your state:

as defined by Iowa Code 234.1(2) - means either a person less than eighteen years of age or a person eighteen or nineteen years of age who meets any of the following conditions:

- a) is in full-time attendance at an accredited school pursuing a course of study leading to a high school diploma,
- b) is attending an instructional program leading to a high school equivalency diploma,
- c) has been identified by the director of special education of the area education agency as a child requiring special education as defined in section 256B.2, subsection 1

Please provide the definition of adult for the services provided in your state:

A person over eighteen years of age who has received a high school diploma or high school equivalency diploma does not meet the definition of "child" and therefore would be considered an adult.

Please provide the definition of a family for the services provided in your state:

(as defined by Iowa Code 239B.1(5) - Means a family unit that includes at least one child and at least one parent or other specified relative of the child.
