

Kinship Foster Care Approval Application

You are receiving this application to be a formal kin caregiver for a child who has been separated from their parents or caregivers and is in the custody of the child welfare system. We consider any adult with a meaningful relationship to the child a family member (or “kin”), even if you are not related by blood or marriage.

Our agency is committed to ensuring a safe environment for the child and this means considering everything we can about whoever cares for them while they are separated from their home. In addition to ensuring child safety, getting approved as a kin caregiver has benefits for your household such as:

- Funds to assist with expenses
 - Monthly support payment
 - Childcare
 - Clothing Allowance
- Service referrals to support the child
- Support for caregivers

The application to become a formal kin caregiver includes all of the following checks:

- Criminal background records, including fingerprinting Child abuse and neglect records
- Out of state background checks
- Sex offender registry records
- Home assessment to make sure your home is safe for the child, completed by the caseworker while you are present
- Suitability assessment to make sure you're able to care for the child

To complete the above checks, you will need to show an ID, like a driver's license or passport. Refer to the fingerprinting ID form for more information. If you have a social security number or a tax ID number (ITIN), we recommend sharing it to get the fastest background checks results.

Talk with your caseworker if you need these forms in a different language, accommodations for a disability, or do not understand something for any reason. Your caseworker will refer you to resources, including the opportunity to connect with other kin caregivers.

We recognize that this process looks into highly sensitive information about you, your past, and your home. For example, even if you have a record, the agency might be able to approve you, so long as there is proof that it will not affect the child's safety and well-being.

Thank you for going through this application process and offering a home for your family member.

You Have the Right to Appeal

What is an appeal? An appeal is asking for a hearing because you do not like a decision the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) makes. You have the right to file an appeal if you disagree with a decision. You do not have to pay to file an appeal. [441 Iowa Administrative Code Chapter 7].

How do I appeal? You can appeal in person or in writing for. You must appeal in writing for all other programs by doing one of the following:

- A. Complete an appeal electronically at: <https://hhs.iowa.gov/programs/appeals> or
- B. Write a letter telling us why you think a decision is wrong, or
- C. Fill out an Appeal and Request for Hearing form. You can get this form at your county HHS office.

Send or take your appeal to the Iowa Department of Health and Human Services, 321 E 12th Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50319. If you need help filing an appeal, ask your county HHS office.

How long do I have to appeal? You must file an appeal within 30 calendar days of the date of a decision or before the date a decision goes into effect.

If you file an appeal more than 30 but less than 90 calendar days from the date of a decision, you must tell us why your appeal is late. If you have a good reason for filing your appeal late, we will decide if you can get a hearing. If you file an appeal 90 days after the date of a decision, we cannot give you a hearing.

Can I continue to get benefits when my appeal is pending? You may keep your benefits until an appeal is final or through the end of your certification period if you file an appeal within 10 calendar days of the date the notice is received. A notice is considered to be received 5 calendar days after the date on the notice. Any benefits you get while your appeal is being decided may have to be paid back if the HHS's action is correct.

How will I know if I get a hearing? You will get a hearing notice that tells you the date and time a telephone hearing is scheduled. You will get a letter telling you if you do not get a hearing. It will also explain what you can do if you disagree with the decision to not give you a hearing.

Can I have someone else help me in the hearing? You or someone else, such as a friend or relative, can tell why you disagree with the HHS's decision. You may also have a lawyer help you, but HHS will not pay for one. Your county HHS office can give you information about legal services. The cost of legal services will be based on your income. You may also call Iowa Legal Aid at 1-800-532-1275. If you live in Polk County, call 515-243-1193.
