

Jill Stuecker

Community Access and Eligibility Division Director

Jill Stuecker serves as the Division Director of Community Access and Eligibility for the Iowa Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Prior to joining Iowa HHS, she served as the Division Administrator for the Professional Licensing Division at the Iowa Department of Inspections, Appeals & Licensing, and as Executive Director of the Iowa Dental Board. Before state government, she was the Director of a refugee program in the nonprofit sector.

Jill earned a bachelor's degree from Luther College and a dual master's degree in public administration and international relations from Seton Hall University. She started her role as Division Director of Community Access and Eligibility in July of 2026.