

Family Development and Self-Sufficiency (FaDSS) Program Contract Measures

Previous Contract Measures	Proposed Contract Measures
• 75% of visits conducted in the family’s home environment • 25% of visits where other family members are engaged in the visit • 60% of employed families with child care needs have addressed those needs • 90% of adult family members with substantiated mental health concerns access treatment • 90% of adult family members with substantiated substance use disorder concerns access treatment • 90% of adult family members with substantiated instances of domestic violence access assistance • 70% of families involved in at least one activity designed to increase work preparedness • 50% of families who exit have increased household income	• 75% of visits conducted in the family’s home environment • 30% of visits where other family members are engaged in the visit • 60% of employed families with child care needs have addressed those needs • 90% of adult family members with substantiated mental health concerns access treatment • 90% of adult family members with substantiated substance use disorder concerns access treatment • 90% of adult family members with substantiated chronic and acute physical illness access treatment • 90% of adult family members with substantiated instances of domestic violence access assistance • 50% of those who exit have increased household income • 30% of visits include skill-building activities (life skills, financial literacy, parenting etc.) • 30% of families have increased employment at exit • 60% of families who set a goal to increase their support network show improvement in that domain • 25% of families who set a goal to increase adult education show improvement in that domain • 50% of families who set a transportation goal show improvement in that domain • 40% of families who set a housing goal show improvement in that domain