Summary

All instructions and forms have been revised to reflect the current forms used, and the instructions have been reorganized to the current format. The changes made to Comm. 204 (formerly SS-0711) are as follows:

- ◆ The contact information for Department staff involved in child care center licensing and technical assistance resources is updated.
- ◆ Pages 3 and 4, Definitions. The definitions of child, child care center, and registered child development home are revised to be consistent with Iowa Code Chapter 237A, as amended by 2002 Iowa Acts, Chapter 1142.

- ◆ Page 5, When a License Is Required. The revision clarifies when a new license must be obtained and what must be submitted.
- ◆ Page 6, Programs That Are Not Required to Be Licensed. This section is revised to be consistent with consistent with Iowa Code Chapter 237A, as amended by 2002 Iowa Acts, Chapter 1142, with changes to licensing exemptions.
- ◆ Page 11, Approval for a Full License. This section is revised to reflect the increase in the duration of a full license from 12 months to 24 months as directed by 2002 Iowa Acts, Chapter 1142.
- ◆ Pages 12 and 13, Denial and Suspension and Revocation. These sections are revised to incorporate changes made to limits on involvement with child care by 2003 Iowa Acts, Senate File 351.
- ◆ Page 15, Licensing File. The licensing file section is revised to reflect the public nature of licensing files.
- ◆ Page 21 through 23, State Contacts. This information is updated.
- ◆ Page 45 and 49, Personnel. A change is made to the experience requirements to reflect the name change of “registered child care home” to “registered child development home.”
- ◆ Page 56, Record Checks and Evaluations. This section is revised to incorporate changes made to record checks, record check evaluations, and involvement with child care made in 2003 Iowa Acts, Senate File 351. This revision replaces the letter sent to all directors on July 23, 2003.
- ◆ Page 61 through 63, Mandatory Reporting and Universal Precautions. These sections are revised to reflect:
 - The change to child abuse mandatory reporting training. This revision replaces the letter sent to all directors on May 16, 2002.
 - The Occupational Health and Safety Administration’s regulations for universal precautions training and the National Health and Safety Performance standards for the handling of breast milk.
- ◆ Page 81, Personnel Records. This section is revised to provide additional information on how to document training in the personnel file for first aid and CPR and where to send criminal history record check forms.
- ◆ Page 87, Immunization Certificates. This section is updated to reflect the current immunizations required for children to enroll in child care.
- ◆ Page 97, Infectious Disease Control. This section is updated to reflect the National Health and Safety Performance standards. These changes include:
 - Information about handling human milk. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention now knows that people who handle human milk in child care settings are at low risk for getting an infection from human milk. Gloves are not required for feeding or handling human milk. Gloves are not required for cleaning up spills of human milk
 - Correction of the ratio error in the disinfectant bleach water solution.

- ◆ Page 104 and 1050, First-Aid Kits. This section is revised to:
 - Be consistent with the 2002 Edition of the National Health and Safety Performance standards for the contents of a first aid kit.
 - Identify when a fanny pack may be a first-aid kit in an outdoor play area and what it must contain.
- ◆ Page 118, Facility Requirements. This section is revised to clarify that outdoor play areas can be a place where children develop physical, intellectual, emotional and social skills.
- ◆ Page 131, Environmental Hazards: Lead Based Paints. This section is updated to provide resource information on how to conduct a visual assessment of lead paint and the need to eliminate lead hazards.
- ◆ Page 169, Food Preparation, Storage and Sanitation. This section is updated to:
 - Be consistent with the 2002 Edition of the National Health and Safety Performance standards for dishwashing.
 - Recommend commercial grade dishwashers for large centers.
- ◆ Pages 171 through 178, Qualifications. These worksheets are updated to reflect the name change from “registered child care home” to “registered child development home” and to correct the requirements in the supervisor worksheet.
- ◆ Pages 187 through 190, Record Check Evaluation. The revised version of this form in both English and Spanish, Forms 470-2310 and 470 2310(S), Rev. 06/03, are now included in the handbook.
