

Agreement for Automatic Deposit

Start, Change or Stop Your Automatic Deposit

Check the box below that shows what you want to do.

- I want to deposit my benefits into my account. I give my bank or credit union permission to put my benefits into the account listed below.

Automatic deposit will start when our system notifies your bank or credit union. This notification may take up to 10 days, so you may still get next month's check in the mail.

- I want to change my automatic deposit to the account below. I give my bank or credit union permission to put my benefits into the account listed below.

- I want to stop my benefits from being deposited into my account.

Information About You and Your Account

Fill in the information about you and your bank or credit union account. You will need to look at one of your checks.

Your route number is the 9-digit number on your check in the bottom left hand corner. It will be between symbols that look like I:. Do not use the route number from a deposit slip. The numbers are not the same.

If you want to deposit your benefits into a savings account, contact your bank or credit union to get the correct route number.

Your account number is the number next to the route number on the right. This number can vary in length, but is usually no longer than 12 digits. It ends with the account number symbol II.
