Help With Your SNAP – Authorized Representative

If you feel like you need help from someone else to be at your HHS interviews, complete your HHS documents, answer HHS questions, and buy food for you with your EBT benefits, you can tell us who that is. The person who represents you to HHS is called your Authorized Representative. It's very important to pick an Authorized Representative who you trust and can rely on. Any information given to HHS from your Authorized Representative is the same as if that information came from you. If they give wrong information and you get too many benefits, you will have to pay those benefits back. If they use your EBT benefits, you can't get those benefits replaced. You don't have to have an Authorized Representative. It's optional and is your decision.

I understand what having an Authorized Representative means and I would like to have one. I understand HHS will be able to share my information with the person I list below.

Name: _____ Telephone number: _____

Social Security Number (SSN) and Immigration Status Information

We can give help only to people who give us their SSN or proof of application from the Social Security office. You don't have to give us the SSN for people in your household who you do not want help for, but you can choose to give us their SSN. However, we will use any SSN given to us the same way we use the SSN of people getting assistance. If you do not give us an SSN for people in your household, we will deny assistance to those people. There are some exceptions to this. Please ask your worker. We will not give any SSN to the Citizenship and Immigration Service.

You can apply for part of your household even if some members do not have lawful immigrant status. For example, parents who do not have lawful immigrant status may apply for their children who are U.S. citizens or qualified lawful immigrants. You need to give proof of immigration status or U.S. citizenship for each person in your household for whom you apply. Your household's alien status may be checked with the Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS). Any information we get from USCIS may affect your household's benefits. We will not contact the Citizenship and Immigration Service about the people you don't apply for. However, we may use their income and assets to see if the rest of the household can get help.

We might check your information by contacting your employer, your bank, or other people. Such information may affect your household's eligibility and level of benefits.

Things You Need to Know

- Households eligible for SNAP may get a notice that they are eligible for the “Promoting Awareness of the Benefits of a Healthy Marriage” program and a pamphlet listing those benefits. By giving this information, HHS can use different rules that may help you get SNAP.
- If you have a SNAP overpayment, HHS will give your answers to federal and state agencies as well as private claims collection agencies, to collect the overpayment.
- The SNAP office may contact other people or organizations to get proof of your information.
- The application filing date is different if your household is in an institution and applying for SNAP and Supplemental Security Income at the same time. In this case, the filing date is the date of release from the institution.
- You may not be denied SNAP benefits just because you were denied benefits from other programs. SNAP applications will not be delayed due to requirements of other programs you may apply for.
- By having signed this application, you agree that all members of your household will register for work and follow all of the work and training rules.
- To see what employment and training opportunities are available, you may contact:
 - HHS SNAP Employment & Training (E&T) Program online at <https://dhs.iowa.gov/food-assistance/related-programs/employment-and-training> or by phone at (515) 281-3131
 - Your local IowaWorks Center. You may find your local work center at <https://www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov/contact>
 - United Way – 211
- The collection of information on the application, including the social security number of each household member, is authorized under the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008 (formerly the Food Stamp Act of 1977), as amended, 7 U.S.C. 2011-2036. The information will be used to determine whether your household is eligible or continues to be eligible to participate in the SNAP program. We will verify this information through computer matching programs. This information will also be used to monitor compliance with program regulations and for program management.
- A household consisting of only Supplemental Security Income (SSI) applicants or recipients is entitled to apply for SNAP recertification at a Social Security Administration office.

FIP or Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA) Only

Within 10 days of the date the change happens, you must tell HHS about changes, such as:

- Income, when it starts or stops, including getting an inheritance or a one-time payment of past due child support
- Resources or assets
- Someone moving in or out of your home

- Receipt of a SSN
- Change of school attendance of a child

If you receive FIP or Refugee Cash Assistance benefits, your SNAP may go down or stop.

You must cooperate with Child Support Services. While you get FIP, you give up your rights to child support for the months you are on FIP. The state of Iowa will keep your child support to pay back the money you get from FIP.

Using Your FIP/RCA Electronic Access Card (EAC) or Your Debit Card to Access FIP/RCA Funds from Your Personal Bank Account

You cannot access your cash benefits with your EAC or personal debit card at a:

- Liquor store or any place that mainly sells liquor,

You must:

- Apply for and accept any benefits that you may be able to get.
- Give us information and provide proof when we ask for it.
- Fill out review forms when you are asked to.
