NOTICES

1. The income of the Respondent is subject to immediate income withholding, under Iowa Code chapter 252D. Until the income provider withholds the required amount of support, it is the Respondent's responsibility to send payments to the Collection Services Center. The Unit and the Respondent in this matter have entered into a written agreement. The Respondent shall complete an application for automatic withdrawal from a bank account within fourteen calendar days after the entry of this order. The automatic withdrawal must be sufficient to make the support payments set by this order. If the Respondent fails to comply with the terms of this agreement, the Unit reserves the right to enter an ex parte order for immediate income withholding or pursue other enforcement actions. Immediate income withholding is not ordered at this time because _____

2. The installment payment method does not prevent the Unit from collecting the accrued support and/or any delinquent support by any means provided by law, including, but not limited to, an interception of income tax refunds, attachment of liens, income withholding, levy of accounts at financial institutions and sanctioning of licenses and motor vehicle registrations. When payments become delinquent in an amount equal to the payment for one month, according to Iowa Code chapter 252D, the Court or the Unit may order the withholding for payment of support set at an amount in accordance with 441 IAC chapter 98, division II, or according to Iowa Code chapter 252I, the Unit may execute an administrative levy on the Respondent's financial institutions.

3. According to Iowa Code section 598.22B, the Respondent, payee, and any necessary third party shall provide the Unit with written information about the person's identity, social security number, residential and mailing addresses, telephone number, driver's license number, and the name, address, and telephone number of the party's current employer or other source of income and keep the Unit informed of any changes. The Respondent shall also provide the Unit information about health insurance which is available, including health insurance policy information. If a later child support action is started and a diligent but unsuccessful effort is made to locate the party, due process requirements may be met by delivering a written notice to the most recent residential or employer address on file with the Unit.

4. According to Iowa Code section 252B.23, if support in arrears is referred to a collection entity, a surcharge may be assessed to the Respondent, and information may be provided to a collection entity for purposes of administering and enforcing the surcharge. The amount of the surcharge is a percentage of the amount in arrears.

28 USC section 1738B and Iowa Code chapter 252K prohibit the entry of a new support order that would run during the same time period as an existing order for support from another state. However, no individual contestant to the orders or the child(ren) currently live in any of the states that issued a support order. When this happens, a tribunal with jurisdiction must enter a new support order according to Iowa Code section 252K.207. However, any order listed above is for current support which has been either suspended or terminated, and/or is for past support for a different time period than the support obligation established in this action. There may be arrears under the existing orders listed above, but they are not at issue in this action. Neither the Respondent nor the caretaker has disclosed, and the Court and the Unit are unaware of, any existing child support orders involving the Respondent as payor and the name child(ren).
