The Child Support Recovery Unit (the Unit) received a request for review and adjustment of a support order. That request was later withdrawn. Here is our response to that withdrawal and information about rights to request future reviews:

- The Unit accepted the request to withdraw. Since it was received before we served a notice on any of the other persons subject to the order, no one is barred from requesting future reviews.
- The Unit accepted the request to withdraw, and
 - the payee is not allowed to request future reviews for a period of two years.
 - the payor is not allowed to request future reviews for a period of two years.
 - the third party is not allowed to request future reviews for a period of two years.
- The Unit accepted the request to withdraw,
 - AND
 - the payee is not allowed to request future reviews for a period of two years
 - AND
 - the payor is not allowed to request future reviews for a period of two years
 - AND
 - the third party is not allowed to request future reviews for a period of two years.
- The Unit denied the request to withdraw. A person subject to the order wishes to continue the process and will now become the requesting party.

If you have questions about this notice or the review and adjustment process, please contact the office listed in this notice.
