MINOR PARENT REFERRAL TO SERVICES

The persons listed below are being referred to services for assessment to determine if there is a need for services.

The family has been denied Family Investment Program (FIP) benefits because the parent is a minor (under age 18 and never married) who:

- ◆ Does not live with an adult parent or legal guardian.
- AND
- ◆ Has not established good cause for not living with a parent or legal guardian.

Eligibility for FIP may exist if the minor parent moves in with an adult parent or legal guardian OR if evidence of good cause is obtained. A new FIP application form is required to establish eligibility.
