

Don't miss screening an infant because of broken equipment.

If you are having problems with your hearing screening equipment, the Early Hearing Detection and Intervention (EHDI) program has loaner screening Oto-acoustic emissions (OAE) and auditory brainstem response (AABR) units available for hospitals to use while their screening equipment is being repaired. There is no charge for borrowing the equipment.

For information about loaner units, contact:

Tammy O'Hollearn

tammy.ohollearn@hhs.iowa.gov

Linda True

linda.true@hhs.iowa.gov

 833-496-8040