NOTICES

1. The income of the payor is subject to immediate income withholding, under Iowa Code Section 252D.8(1). Until the income provider withholds the required amount of support, the payor shall send payment to the Collection Services Center.
2. The installment payment method does not prevent the Child Support Recovery Unit (the Unit) from collecting the accrued support and/or any delinquent support by any means provided by law. This may include: Income withholding, Garnishment, Liens, Income tax setoff, Levy of account at financial institutions, and Sanctions of licenses and passports.
Based on Iowa Code Chapter 252D, when payments become delinquent in an amount equal to the payment for one month, the Court or the Unit may order the withholding of support. The amount is set in accordance with 441 IAC chapter 98, division II. The Unit may send an administrative levy on the payor's financial institutions under Iowa Code Chapter 252I.
3. If this case is referred to a collection entity to collect support arrears, based on Iowa Code section 252B.23, a surcharge may be assessed to the payor. Information may be provided to a collection entity for purposes of administering and enforcing the surcharge. The amount of the surcharge is a percentage of the amount in arrears.
4. According to Iowa Code Section 598.22B, the payor, payee, and any necessary third party shall provide the Unit with written information about the person's identity, social security number, residential, mailing, and email addresses, telephone number, driver's license number, and the name, address, and telephone number of the party's current employer or other source of income and keep the Unit informed of any changes. Both parents shall also provide the Unit information about health insurance that is available, including health insurance policy information.
