Notice to the Obligor

You may move to quash an income withholding order or a notice of income withholding by filing a motion to quash with the clerk of court.

1. Grounds for contesting a withholding order include the following:
 - a. A mistake of fact which, for purposes of a motion to quash, means an error in the amount withheld for payment, or the amount of the withholding, or the identity of the obligor.
 - b. For immediate income withholding only, good cause or a written agreement existed when the withholding was implemented.

Please note: A motion to quash is not a method to modify current child support or address issues of visitation.

2. The clerk of the district court shall schedule a hearing on the motion to quash for a time not later than seven days after the filing of the motion to quash and the notice of the motion to quash. The clerk shall mail to the parties copies of the motion to quash, the notice of the motion to quash, and the order scheduling the hearing.
3. The income provider shall withhold and transmit the amount specified in the order or notice of the order of income withholding to the Collection Services Center, until the notice that a motion to quash has been granted is received.
