ALLOWANCES FOR SPECIAL NEEDS

SCHOOL EXPENSES OF CHILDREN

The Schedule of Needs includes an allowance for basic school supplies, such as tablets, pencils, crayons, etc. A special allowance may be included for any specific charge arising from the school's requirements for a course in the curriculum.

GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP FEES

When the court specifically orders the payment of a guardianship or conservatorship fee, the allowance may be included in the grant up to a maximum of $10 per month. There is no provision for a fee in protective payment cases.

JOB TRAINING PARTNERSHIP ACT CHILD CARE PAYMENT

Payment is made for child care incurred while participating in a training program administered under the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA). The amount allowed is the amount authorized by the JTPA worker.

FIP SPECIAL NEEDS CLASSROOM TRAINING

Payment is made for expenses of classroom training when approved by central office because PROMISE JOBS funds have been exhausted or eliminated or are otherwise unavailable. These payments are automatically issued by the ABC system.

These allowances are effective July 1, 1991.
