If during a court hearing and you find it necessary to consult with your supervisor, read the following:

“Excuse me your honor, I would like to request a recess to consult with my supervisor.”

If during a court hearing and you believe the county attorney is not representing HHS or providing HHS’s position to the court read the following:

“Excuse me your honor, this hearing is progressing in a way that is contrary to my understanding of how things would proceed. I would like to request a recess and possibly a continuance to consult legal counsel.”

If during a hearing, you are asked your personal opinion about the case read the following:

“It is my professional responsibility to present the Department’s position, not my personal opinion, which may or may not be the same.”

If ordered by the court to give your personal opinion you shall comply.
