

Direct and Tangible Interest to a Certified Copy in Iowa

Requests from Government Agencies

FEDERAL:

Iowa law grants code-authority to charge federal agencies for certified copies. The agency must comply with the criteria for requesting a certified copy and proving entitlement. They may qualify if the copy is to be used for their administrative purposes – but not for their own personal use or their client's personal use.

- Recruiters of the Armed Forces – verifications with the State.
 - Recruiters are not entitled to a certified copy at the time the person is applying to enter the armed forces (i.e., the person is not yet in the service).
 - Recruiters qualify for verifications at no charge with the Bureau of Health Statistics under Administrative Rule 641—104, which authorizes the state registrar to furnish federal, state, county or municipal government agencies with confidential verifications of facts contained within a vital records when used within their official duties. No verification information may be provided over the telephone by the Bureau of Health Statistics.
 - Recruiters must complete form #372, fax the form to the Bureau of Health Statistics and arrange pick up of the verification from the Bureau of Health Statistics. There is generally a 2-day turnaround.
 - Recruiters with questions may be referred to the Bureau of Health Statistics.
- Social Security Administration
 - SSA must follow the criteria for requesting and proving entitlement, including paying for both verifications and certified copies. Requests should be referred to the Bureau of Health Statistics.

STATE, OTHER THAN IOWA:

Iowa law grants code-authority to charge state agencies for certified copies. The agency must comply with the criteria for requesting a certified copy and proving entitlement. The state may qualify if the copy is used for administrative purposes only. No information about a record may be provided over the telephone by the Bureau of Health Statistics.
