Satisfaction Balance Calculation Worksheet

Purpose	Use the Satisfaction Balance Calculation Worksheet to calculate the arrears balance eligible for satisfaction, which will be entered on form 470-3545, Instructions for Satisfying Delinquent Child Support .
Source	Use the link above to access the Satisfaction Balance Calculation Worksheet on SharePoint.
Completion	Complete this form when you need assistance in determining the amount of the arrears balance eligible for satisfaction for the satisfaction paperwork. Complete the gray boxes with information from the case for each order being suspended that has an arrears balance eligible for satisfaction. Once you enter the information, the Excel program calculates the necessary totals. Complete IA, IB, IC, IE, and IG for the first suspended court order. Repeat this process for up to five suspended orders with balances eligible for satisfaction. If an obligation amount on the order being suspended has changed, you may use one line for each of the obligation amounts calculated. NOTE: Do not include arrearages that accrued under alimony obligations (CA) unless the basis for suspension is reconciliation. Do not include arrearages that accrued under medical support obligations (MS) or from other orders not being suspended (including RE only orders). The worksheet calculates the “Unpaid Balance Due CP” for each suspended order and then calculates the total “Unpaid Balance Due for CP” which displays at the bottom of the worksheet in box “H.” Enter the amount of “H” (the total “Unpaid Balance Due CP” from the suspended orders only) in the Instructions for Satisfying Delinquent Child Support (on FORMVIEW), as the “Portion of Balance Due to Payees.”
Distribution	Because this worksheet is for internal use only, do not distribute it to any party. Maintain a copy of the final completed worksheet in the CSRU imaged case file.
Data	Enter the following information in the Excel worksheet: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ ICAR case number▪ 1st suspended court order number▪ IA - court ordered amount for the 1st suspended court order▪ IB - Number of billing periods since the 1st order was entered▪ IC – Total RE ordered on this order

- IE - Amount paid toward this 1st court order by the payor
- IG – Amount of the unpaid Balance of this 1st court order due to the state of Iowa

Repeat these steps for any additional suspended court orders with an arrears balance eligible for satisfaction.

NOTE: Remember to calculate only the arrears balance eligible for satisfaction for the orders being suspended that also preliminarily qualify for satisfaction. (Remember not to list any orders or their balances that absolutely do not qualify for satisfaction.)

Comm. 240, Procedures for Suspending, Satisfying, and Reinstating Child Support Obligations

Purpose	Use Comm. 240, Procedures for Suspending, Satisfying and Reinstating Child Support Obligations to explain the suspension process to the payor, the payee, and the assignee, if any. It provides information on how the parties complete a request for suspension for both suspension by mutual consent and suspension by payor's request.
Source	Generate this form by entering a code in the GEN CVR/COM/REQ/AFF(Y/R): CP RP ASN fields for suspension by mutual consent using the SUSCI screen, or GEN CVR/COM/REQ(Y/R): RP field for suspension by payor's request using the SUSPI screen. Enter "Y" the first time you generate the form and "R" to regenerate it, if necessary. Customers can download the form from the Child Support website.
Completion	Generate this form when you receive a written or verbal request for suspension of a support order.
Distribution	Print a copy for all parties involved in the suspension and mail it with the rest of the suspension forms.
Data	There are no variables to complete for this form.
